

Dear Debra,

How is Luella Tucker?

We (the Boston Female Anti Slavery Society) have paid 14 dollars on her account to Jas Easton of N. Bridgewater who carried her from Boston to Bridg^{er} kept her there for some time I forget how long, gave her medical attendance & finally carried her to N. Bedford. We owe him $13 more. How to get it I know not.

We have just paid $400 to the cause - paid 25 to a man from Kentucky whose humanity has brought him into trouble - 25 for ^{printing} sundry tracts - and where to look for a cent I know not - I wish to get this $13 from N. Bedford. I wish Andrew Prohson would come to our rescue. Try.

Dear Mother

I have a letter to you the first of which I have just received and I am glad to hear that you are well and hope you will continue to be so for some time longer I hope you will be able to attend to your business as usual and I hope you will be able to be as usual and I hope you will be able to be as usual and I hope you will be able to

Yours affectionately
